Dedication

Because you deny yourself so that we may have that which you did not have;
Because you desire for us the higher and finer things of life;
Because you understand when all our world goes wrong;
Because you love us in spite of our shortcomings;
And, because we want to express our love and appreciation,
we, the Seniors of Wakelon High School, dedicate this volume of our annual to you -----Our Parents.

In Memoriam

We, the Class of 1953, prepare this annual in the memory of our beloved classmate, Ted Brannan. Ted was drowned at Lake Mirl while attending our Sophomore class picnic. As this time of graduation nears, our thoughts are sorrow-ed by his absence. The chain of our friendship was broken by his heart-rending death, but the chain of our memories will be with him throughout our life.

Administration

To you--the Editor, Sponsor, and staff of the WAK-IGH-AN, I extend for myself and the entire school, our heartiest congratulations for this fine annual. We appreciate the efforts put forth to produce such a book.

Your class can boast of many exceptional students whose future accomplishments should make the school and community justly proud. We of the faculty are happy to have had a part in your intellectual growth and truly hope that we have been a positive factor in making your class one of dependability and resourcefulness.

The years pass rapidly and you will soon be expected to assume roles of leadership and responsibility in your community and state. The problems confronting us are always a challenge to our best thought and action; therefore, I earnestly urge you to continue your training and preparation for a fruitful life.

WHEN WE WERE VERY YOUNG

Senior Class Poem

It's closing time and high school ends for me,
They say the best in life is yet to be -
And yet I view the past with falling tears,
As thoughts begin to search through the years,
While my school in the twilight stands,
Like a beggar, stretching forth her hands.

My thoughts now wander down halls so empty and bare,
While all my dreams are of what once was there;
And even on our graduation day,
We pause awhile to meditate and pray
That all our school's aims we won't forget,
And that we'll strive to reach each goal we've set.

And so upon our Commencement Day,
We view the road which leads us away,
We've come to the end of our road,
And each must take a separate load,
For to our school we all must bid good-bye
For we are the Seniors of Wakelon High.

Senior Class History

The Class of 1953 began its school life on September 8, 1941. Many things have passed our memory, but we can still recall vivid happenings in which many of us were involved. We remember quite distinctly decorating our little tables on holidays in the first grade and learning to improve our lessons by receiving tiny stars for our achievements. Not many of us were made to stand in the corner but some of us recall having our hair or ears pulled on many occasions for being mischievous. Our teachers were Mrs. Eva Page and Mrs. Lois Wall and our first class party was held that year at Halloween by our grademothers, Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Clويد Wade and Mrs. Edison Wood.

Chapel programs were a great thrill to us as we gave our first one shortly after our school life began. Our extra special thrill all through school has been the annual appearance of the Sauline Players.

A mighty happy bunch of second-year students went to their new classes under Mrs. Carter Studdert and Miss Dean Hardison. More complicated lessons were being taught. However, only a few were left behind while the rest of us entered the third grade. Our teachers that year were Miss Elizabeth Smith and Mrs. G. E. Winston. Handicrafts were emphasized that year and for the first time, since school life began, we made presents by ourselves for our parents at Christmas.

Our fourth-year in school we continued our handicrafts by making spatter paints and handmade pictures for the wall. Mrs. Winston moved up to the fourth grade with us. The other section was taught by Miss Evelyn Thompson. A new course, Geography, was introduced to us that year.

During this time, we participated in public school music classes each day under the direction of Mrs. Robert Daniel Massey.

In the fifth grade Mrs. Helen Gregory and Miss Annie Lou Alston encouraged us and taught us many new things, including a great number of poems which we always dreaded. Now as we look backward, however, we are glad we had the chance to learn them.

Mrs. Coressa Chamblee and Miss Rebekah Talbert were our sixth grade teachers. We enjoyed our first chance to study paintings by famous artists. In History that year, we remember making prehistoric men and their weapons.

The greatest thrill in our sixth year was an operetta entitled "The Prince of Spring" in which we were allowed to participate. The main characters were Glenn Perry, Hazel Ihrie and Steve Johnson--all chosen from our class. We continued our music study under Mrs. Thomas Kilkelly.

Our last year of Grammar school ended under Mrs. Falc Bunn and Miss Hilda Martin. We think the preparation we made that year has helped us through the rest of our stay here at Wakelon. We were introduced to Palmer Method Writing. When our work was sent to New York at the end of the year, many of us received certificates for our achievements.

What we had really waited for had come--our first year in the high school building! This was really exciting although we were often caught going down the halls the wrong way. All of the rooms were a great mystery to us. We wondered if we would ever learn the proper places to be, but it wasn't long until we really surprised ourselves by getting to the right room although sometimes we were tardy. Somehow our teachers were understanding and before long we were ending high school life of which we had enjoyed every minute despite tests, exams and long assignments. All of us agree the most enjoyable year we have spent has been our Senior year with its privileges.

Some of the things we remember were MEANT to be "off the record"--often though our sins found us out. We can remember well, during our Freshman days, one rainy day when nearly all of the teachers, students and principal had gone to Southern Pines to a basketball Tournament in which our team was participating. A certain group of freshmen girls were supposed to be in their seats studying Health--instead, they were hanging out of the windows which we knew we weren't suppose to do. Mr. Malbert Smith walked in and made everyone sign a piece of paper to send to the office. Our first thought was that we would surely be expelled. However, after quite a lecture, we remembered to remain in our seats, even when there was no teacher in the room.

We also remember Bobby Driver pushing Miss Smithwick's potted plants out of the windows when we were Juniors.

At the end of the Seventh grade, when they knew that Palmer Method Writing was over, the boys almost had an ink fight. They threw their ink bottles up against the walls and splashed them to get rid of the ink.

A group of Mrs. Falc Bunn's Seventh graders decided not to go back to class one day so they just hid in the old grandstand. A heavy rain came and Mrs. Bunn had to wade out to the grandstand to bring her students back to class.

Barbara Lou Chamblee remembers asking to be excused and being denied by Mrs. Page.

Miss Smith, the third grade teacher, spanked every member of her class because they had laughed during a concert given by an accomplished singer. Sue Alford was the first to be spanked and Hazel Ihrle thought it was terribly funny because she laughed all through the process.

This year's Senior Class has been quite athletic along with being mischievous. Maybe that started back in the sixth grade when the two sections were strong rivals in basketball. Mrs. Chamblee's class called their team "Red Diamond" and Miss Talbert's class chose "Atomic Team" as its name. All of the players were numbered. Each team had its own color and yells. The yells were written by the classmembers. Thus, we began an extended athletic career.

Each Junior Class gets the honor of giving a banquet for the Senior class. We did this proudly and we are especially proud of the fact that it was one of the nicest ever given at Wakelon.

During high school, we have taken many trips to Durham, Chapel Hill and Raleigh. Last Spring, we went to Raleigh to Career Day in order to learn more about our chosen vocation.

Our Junior year was quite outstanding. We especially liked the time the Seniors went to Washington, when almost everybody in the auditorium was standing for us to walk down the aisle as we took the Seniors' places.

Ninety four students were enrolled in the first grade. We have acquired a few new members and we have lost some. We have lost only one member, Ted Brannan, by death. Ted's drowning in the spring of 1951 at a class party brought a sadness to us that we had never known.

The Senior play was given before Christmas and all of the cast appreciated showing their dramatic talents to a good sized audience.

Washington was turned upside over this Spring when we returned from a short stay. Our twelve years having been climaxed by the graduation has met with great success. It leaves us happy but with a hollow feeling.

We are proud of our class and we are proud of our school. We want to keep Wakelon's standards high always.

Class Prophecy

As I have a habit of saving everything I get my hands on, I was looking through an old trunk when to my surprise, I came across some recent Zebulon Records that had been put aside without my knowledge. Naturally, these carried the news of all the home folks and I was really entertained for quite awhile as one of these carried the doings of the Seniors of '53. This is what I read.

Hilda Morris has taken a lease on Carnegie Hall for the next twenty years. Her piano playing is out of this world.

Bobby Driver is working at the Deaf School. They hired him because he talks so loud that the deaf people can hear him.

G. J. Perry is following in his mother's footsteps. He is the hair stylist at Hopkins Cross Roads.

Glen Perry hasn't been heard from since his arrival in Hollywood. It is rumored he will soon appear opposite Marilyn Monroe in "In My Arms."

Sarah Stallings is now teaching the third grade at Wakefield University. She teaches Psychology.

Leroy Trevathan was in a bookstore the other day when all at once he was wrapped up and sold for twenty dollars. They thought he was a walking Encyclopedia.

Patsy King is erecting a big bank in Lizard Lick, North Carolina where she will be banker, teller and janitor combined.

J. W. Boykin is still with Daniels Drug Co., but we hear that he was told by Mr. Daniels to leave his pants and take the cash register home.

Fan Green is very successful in her business also. She is the owner of Green's Dairy with one cow.

Barbee Chamblee and Irving Murphy are now Admirals with their own unit of the Reserves in Zebulon. They have a fleet on Little River of two battle-ships and one row boat.

Shirley Rogers tells us she is still a cheer leader but not at Wakelon. She cheers for Shaw University.

Ronald Perry has discovered a new tooth paste for cleaning his teeth. They are like the stars because they come out at night.

Sue Richards has just graduated from E.C.C. where she learned all about teaching. She now teaches the children at Wendell how to imitate the ones at Wakelon.

Rudolph Bunn has just invented an invisible bobby pin to keep his hair out of his eyes.

Sue Alford has finally let Connie Mack alone for us to ask what they are doing. Connie says he is raising tobacco and Sue is raising "cain."

Kay Baker is the only person in Zebulon who has a body guard. That is in case she loses her head, he will find it.

Bobby Raper, having been so efficient in bus driving, has been named traffic manager of Wakelon School.

Fay Ihrle is happily bringing up children while her sister-in-law, Hazel, is bringing up Charles.

Peggy Weathers is the new secretary to Bunn and Company as Glenn is manager of the large business.

Alice Wall is globe trotting, trying to keep up with Charlie who is a major in the army.

Betty Sue Williams has just developed a new perfume that is selling like hot cakes. She calls it moonshine and sells it by the pints.

Since Mr. Screws left Zebulon, we are left with only one person to be the undertaker and embalmer, Alton Temple. His motto is "I'm your last friend to let you down."

Juanna Joy Mitchell is president of the U.N. They have increased the guards three to one as the Communists are trying to nab Juanna Joy because she is such a success in her talks about world peace.

Rodney Bell is now the coach of the Wakelon High team. Only last week he told his basketball team, "Here we are girls, untied, unbeaten and unscored upon, getting ready for our first game."

Reuben Pearce has become the owner of the first railroad running from Zebulon through Wakefield, Pearces and Bunn.

Mildred Fowler is now the proud owner of "The Forks Drive In" where they don't have a movie but charge you a quarter for parking.

Jimmy Joyner tells us that he is now enrolled at State College and is great help to the Wolfpack and Coach Everett Case. He helps wash towels every Wednesday night.

Charles Alford is operator of Alford's Drive In. He learned the tricks and trade at the Wakelon Theater.

Hildreth Bunn is coach of the girl's basketball team at Lizard Lick College. The team is known as the Lizard Lickers.

A business like young lady is Lucy Blackley who tells us she is now the proud owner of the first Drive-In-Theater at Bunn.

Bernice and Frances Edwards are celebrities. Only last week they were chosen the Gillette Twins because they are like the blades, they are so thin.

Roy Mitchell is still waiting for Doris to propose. He said someone has to and it may as well be her.

Bruce Wood is pining for the palms of Florida and to make a certain person happy.

Barbara Lou Chamblee tells us she is still with Woolworth's dime store, but not as a sales girl because she is now a stockholder. She owns 1% of stock.

Hopkins Cross Roads has a new factory owned by Derward Baker. It's a Yo-Yo factory and he is known as the Yo-Yo King of Hopkins.

Ronnie Richards is now driving a road machine so he won't have to clean out ditches with his car.

Lowell Pulley tells us Phillip's Grocery is going out of business. In fact he has no business because Lowell has his own store next door where Mr. Culpepper owned at one time.

Jimmy Medlin is waiting for Martha to finish college. Then there will be a wedding, I'm sure.

Lowell Liles is known as Zebulon's most eligible batchlor. His past time is baby sitting.

As for John Phillips, he escaped from Richard's Incline to attend the reunion. There he was suffering from Schizophrenia. (Split personality.) He left his other self up there.

Glenn Perry leaves his love for Mars Hill to everybody as interested in it as he is. Barbara Chamblee wills her silly laugh to Crettie Parrish. Sue Richards wills her intellectual ability and dignified ways to Sarah Tippet. Leroy Trevathan wills his quiet ways and politeness to Don Driver. Shirley Rogers leaves her cheerleading position to anybody who wants it. J. W. Boykin wills his height to Luther Long. If I have anything worth saving, you may have it.
